UNIVERSITY

CHRISTIAN FAITH IN THE PUBLIC SQUARE

Course Outline • CSAP 645 (2 Units) • Spring 2014 • Kevin Lewis

Independent Study

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION

An exploration of the proper model for Christian involvement in public discourse, policy and activity. Attention is given to the intelligent analysis and critique of key social issues with respect to the Christian worldview and techniques for the defense of the Christian position in public forums.

II. LEARNING OUTCOMES

After satisfactorily completing the course requirements, students should be able to:

1. Explain and defend the theological and philosophical foundations of law and public policy.
2. Explain and defend the nature, purpose, and function of the church, the state, and the relationship between these two institutions.
3. Articulate, analyze, and defend a Christian understanding of the core law and public policy issues facing the culture.

III. TEXTBOOKS

1. Barton, David. Original Intent: The Courts, the Constitution, & Religion. 5th Ed. Wallbuilders Press, 2008.
2. Cranfield, C.E.B, Kilgour, David and Montgomery, John Warwick. Christians in the Public Square: Law, Gospel & Public Policy. Canadian Institute for Law, Theology & Public Policy, Inc., 1996.
3. Hall, David W. Calvin in the Public Square. P & R Publishers, 2009.
4. Lewis, Kevin. CFPS Syllabi (Website Version) [Note that this resource will be available in sections on my website at <http://www.theolaw.org>.]

B. RECOMMENDED TEXTS

1. Berman, Harold J. Faith and Order: The Reconciliation of Law and Religion. Grand Rapids: Eerdmans, 2000.

IV. COURSE ASSIGNMENTS

A. COURSE OUTLINE & PROFESSOR CONTACT

1. The student must carefully read the entire course outline prior to the commencement of the course.
2. After reading the course outline, the student must send a confirmation email to the coordinating professor at kevin.lewis@biola.edu indicating the student has read the entire course outline.
3. The “Subject” line of this email must read (exactly) “CFPS SPR14 Confirmation Email.”
4. The student may ask for clarification of any part of the course outline in the confirmation email.
5. The due date for the confirmation email is February 3, 2014 or upon receipt of the course outline if received after the due date listed.

B. READING

1. You will complete the assigned reading for the course as listed in the course schedule.
2. You will also complete certain written assignments in connection with your reading. (See discussion of these assignments, infra.)¹

C. PRECIS ASSIGNMENT (ALL REQUIRED TEXTBOOKS)

The student will write a précis for each textbook. For each précis, please observe the following procedure:

1. Paper Guidelines

- a. The word count for the paper should be 3,000 words (+ or – 50). Place the word count on the first page of your report.²
- b. Note that the student may elect to include or exclude the headers, footnotes, and student information in the reported word count.
- c. The paper must be typed, double-spaced with one inch margins, using a 12 point font. It must have page numbers at the bottom of each page.
- d. Important: Use appropriate headings to make your paper’s structure evident at a glance.
- e. At the top of the page, type the title of the assignment, your name, student number, course information (e.g., CFPS, et al.), and the word count (e.g., 2,999). See the example, infra, for formatting details.
- f. Spelling and grammar count. See the explanation, infra, for details.
- g. Be certain to footnote your work. That is, when you directly quote or allude to a portion of the book, properly reference your material.

² Note that most word processors have a word count function located on the “Tools” menu.

2. Substantive Content of the Précis

- a. Write a concise summary (i.e., a précis) of the book.
- b. Do not analyze or comment on the material presented. Simply summarize the text. This means you should write a 3,000 word abstract of the book, reducing the book material to reflect its essential content and arguments.

D. AUDIO LECTURES & STUDENT NOTES

1. Audio Lectures

- a. The student must listen to all of the audio lectures assigned for the course linked on my Biola faculty webpage at www.theolaw.org.
- b. The audio lectures are based on the Christian Faith in the Public Square syllabi, which are available on my Biola faculty webpage at www.theolaw.org. Note that Dr. Waller does not have handouts available for his lectures.

2. Course Syllabi & Note-taking

- a. The student must read all of the course syllabi (i.e., preprinted notes & outlines) assigned for this course. The syllabi are available for download on the course downloads page located at www.theolaw.org. Note that Dr. Waller does not have handouts available for his lectures.
- b. The student shall take careful, comprehensive, and detailed notes of the audio lectures, which follow the materials in the course syllabi. Student notes should be typed on the downloaded copies of the course syllabi.
- c. The student must treat the notes as they would a formal research paper. The student must:
 - (1) Write in complete sentences;
 - (2) Organize his or her work;
 - (3) Use appropriate subheadings and numbering to make the lecture notes clear.
- d. An example of the student notes can be found at the end of this course outline.
- e. Students who do not follow these guidelines will have their grade reduced accordingly.

The student shall submit the typed notes of the audio lectures based on the course syllabi one week on or before the day indicated in the Course Outline

E. SUBMITTING WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS

1. Required Information

Students must have their student name, student number, course name, semester, title of the assignment, and any other required information on each submitted assignment.

2. Email Etiquette

- a. Please treat your emails as formal communications. Use complete sentences. Do not use a “texting” style for your messages.
- b. Be certain to include your full name, course name, and the semester in which you are enrolled (e.g. Spring 2014) in each email you send.

3. Emailing Assignments

- a. For all assignments, please email them as attachments—on or before the due date—to my Biola faculty email address at kevin.lewis@biola.edu.
- b. All assignments must be submitted as Microsoft Word documents.

4. Required Labeling of Student Assignments [READ CAREFULLY HERE]

- a. Each assignment you send as a MS Word document must be properly labeled.
- b. The file name shall contain the following information:
 - (1) Semester
 - (2) Course Name
 - (3) Assignment Name
 - (4) Full Student Name (last name first name)

c. Precis File Names

(1) Barton Precis

- (a) File Name: SPR14 CFPS Barton Last Name First Name
- (b) Example: SPR14 CFPS Barton Lewis Kevin

(2) Hall Precis

- (a) File Name: SPR14 CFPS Hall Last Name First Name
- (b) Example: SPR14 CFPS Hall Lewis Kevin

(3) Cranfield Precis

- (a) File Name: SPR14 CFPS Cranfield Last Name First Name
- (b) Example: SPR14 CFPS Cranfield Lewis Kevin

d. Lecture Notes File Name

- (1) File Name: SPR14 CFPS Notes Last Name First Name
- (2) Example: SPR14 CFPS Notes Lewis Kevin

e. Email Subject Line for Emailing Assignments

NOTE: Send all assignments on or before the due date.

- (1) Subject Line Name: SPR14 CFPS Assignment Last Name First Name
- (2) Subject Line Example: SPR14 CFPS Assignment Lewis Kevin

f. Naming Clarification

- (1) Please do not include quotation marks, hyphens, or underlining in your subject line or file names.
- (2) In sum, please use spaces between words, rather than hyphens, dashes, or underlining, when writing your Subject Lines and File Names.
- (3) Please follow the guidelines for emails and naming files as it helps me organize the large number of student emails and files I receive each semester.

V. IMPORTANT COURSE DATES

Date	Events & Assignments Due
2/3	Confirmation Email Due
3/3	Hall Precis Due
4/7	Barton Precis Due
5/5	Cranfield Precis Due
5/12	Lecture Notes Due

VI. GRADING

A. GRADING CHART

The value of each assignment as it relates to your final grade can be seen in the following scale:

Assignment	% of Final Grade
Barton Precis	25%
Hall Precis	25%
Cranfield Precis	25%
Lecture Notes	25%

B. GRADING CRITERIA

1. Quality of Student Work

- a. In order for a student to receive an “A” grade on any assignment, the student must do outstanding, graduate level work.
- b. If the student submits average or above average graduate level work, the assigned letter grade will reflect the quality of the work submitted.

2. Formalities & Mechanics of Assignments

- a. Format & Required Information: At the top of the first page of all written assignments the student must have the:
 - (1) Title of the assignment,
 - (2) Student’s name,
 - (3) Student’s identification number,
 - (4) Title of the course,
 - (5) Date of the course (e.g., Spring 2014),
 - (6) Name of the professor, and
 - (7) Additional information requested for that specific assignment (e.g., word count). The student may examine the exemplars of the assignments given at the end of this Course Outline for further clarification.
- b. Failure to Follow Instructions: The grade for student papers and assignments will be reduced if the student fails to follow the directions listed in this course outline. Please consult the course outline when completing your assignments.
- c. Note that the paper grade will be reduced one point for each instance of a failure to conform to the guidelines. Please check your work before you submit it for grading.

3. Late Work

- a. All assignments must be submitted on time. Late assignments will be reduced one percentage point for each calendar day they are tardy.
- b. Written assignments must be mailed and postmarked on or before the due date.
- c. Only in the case of extreme emergencies will an exception to this policy be granted.

4. Academic Dishonesty

- a. Biola University is committed to ethical practice in teaching, scholarship, and service. As such, plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty will not be tolerated. Please see the graduate student handbook and/or the departmental/program/school policy on academic honesty. It is imperative that you present all written, oral, and/or performed work with a clear indication of the source of that work. If it is completely your own, you are encouraged to present it as such, taking pleasure in ownership of your own created work. However, it is also imperative that you give full credit to any and all others whose work you have included in your presentation via paraphrase, direct quotation, and/or performance, citing the name(s) or the author(s)/creator(s) and the source of the work with appropriate bibliographic information. To do otherwise is to put oneself in jeopardy of being sanctioned for an act or acts of plagiarism that can carry serious consequences up to and including expulsion from the university.
- b. Biola University regards all forms of plagiarism and cheating on exams as serious problems with serious consequences.
- c. For this course, any student who represents the words or ideas of another as his or her own without giving credit for the source or who cheats on an exam will not receive credit for the course and will be referred for additional disciplinary action.

5. Guidelines for Citations

- a. The student must cite the source (e.g., have a footnote) for any idea found in the student's paper that is not the student's original idea or a matter of common knowledge.
- b. Secondary source citations must be properly cited with reference to the primary text. Thus, if an author cites another author, the footnote must reflect this citation-in-a-citation relationship.

6. Grading Standards for All Written Work

Whereas Biola University desires to maintain the highest standards with respect to the composition of all written work, any student paper exhibiting poor grammar, spelling errors, typographical errors, or other substandard academic expression shall have the overall grade for that paper reduced accordingly. Generally, a paper will be deemed substandard and ineligible to receive an "A" grade when it averages three or more compositional errors per page. Moreover, at the discretion of the professor, the substandard paper may be returned to the student for correction and resubmission with appropriate grade penalties. Graduate papers are expected to demonstrate a higher level of academic expression than undergraduate papers. Students deficient in writing skills may seek assistance at the Biola Writing Center.

7. Grading Rubric & Code Key

The student must examine and employ the criteria listed in the Grading Rubric & Code Key when preparing written assignments. See the Code Key at the end of this course outline, infra.

8. Disabled Students

Students desiring accommodations for your class on the basis of physical learning, or emotional disability are to contact The Learning Center. The office of The Learning Center is located on the upper level of the Library in Room U137. For more information, contact extension 4542 on campus.

C. GRADING SCALE

Final grades will be awarded according to the following scale:

Graduate	Scale
A = 96-100 points (Excellent)	C = 78-80 points (Average)
A- = 93-95 points	C- = 75-77 points
B+ = 90-92 points	D+ = 73-74 points
B = 87-89 points (Above Average)	D = 71-72 points (Below Average)
B- = 84-86 points	D- = 69-70 points
C+ = 81-83 points	F = 0-68 points (Fail)

D. THE PRIVACY ACT

In order to comply with the Privacy Act, professors are not able to leave graded papers and exams in offices or designated areas for the purpose of returning those items to students.

VII. GENERAL COURSE RULES & PROFESSOR POLICIES

A. LECTURES, SYLLABUS & COPYRIGHT

1. The course syllabus, handouts, Power Point presentations, and class lectures are the intellectual property of the professor. As such they are subject to the protections of Federal Copyright Law (Title 17 of the United States Code).
2. Students desiring to copy printed or electronic course materials or record lectures must first obtain permission from the professor. The professor reserves all rights unless explicitly waived.

B. MISCELLANEOUS POLICIES

1. Please do not request an exemption from the rules or to have a deadline extended unless there is an unanticipated emergency.
2. Please do not ask me to change your grade unless I have made an error in calculating the grade.

VIII. GENERAL CLASS RULES & PROFESSOR POLICIES

A. DOCTRINAL EXPECTATIONS FOR STUDENTS:

BIOLA'S DOCTRINAL STATEMENT & EXPLANATORY NOTES

1. Since its inception, Biola has been a conservative evangelical protestant institution. Biola's theological distinctives are affirmed in its Doctrinal Statement and Explanatory Notes (DSEN), which function as the doctrinal standard for the university. Both Talbot School of Theology and the M.A. Christian Apologetics Program expect all graduate students to affirm all of the precepts in the DSEN. The only exception to this policy is for those students who have requested and received an exception on the DSEN's Eschatology and Spiritual Gifts statements. This decision for an exception is made at the time of admission. And if an exception is granted in the aforementioned areas, the student may not actively argue against Biola's teaching position while they are students. Biola's DSEN can be viewed at <http://www.biola.edu/about/doctrinal-statement/>.
2. Since Biola's DSEN does not address every possible theological issue, the university permits a diversity of opinion on issues not covered by the DSEN, such as the doctrines involved in the Calvinism-Arminianism debate. However, apart from the exceptions listed above, Talbot School of Theology and the M.A. Christian Apologetics Program do not permit students to hold views contrary to the DSEN, such as Theistic Evolution, Open Theism, any view that rejects the full inspiration and inerrancy of Scripture, any view that rejects the full deity or full humanity of Jesus Christ, or any view that rejects eternal conscious punishment for the unsaved.
3. Given the school's policies on these matters, it is an expectation for this course that enrolled students affirm the required views of the DSEN. The purpose for this requirement is to establish true unity and avoid unnecessary dissention on these important theological issues in our university community. As well, this policy helps to foster the best possible discipleship experience for all students in Biola's diverse conservative evangelical protestant learning environment.
4. Finally, note that this expectation is not intended to hinder important reflection, discussion, or queries on these matters. Students are encouraged to engage in candid discussions, ask questions about any theological issue, raise counterarguments they have encountered, or even express genuine doubts or confusion about these items. The goal is to foster genuine camaraderie, unity, and koinonia among students as fellow travelers in their theological education.

IX. PROFESSOR AVAILABILITY & CONTACT INFORMATION

1. Office Location: My faculty office is located in the Biola Professional Building.
2. Office Phone: I may be reached at extension 5506 on campus. The Biola Campus telephone number is 562-903-6000.
3. Office Hours: Students may meet with me at breaks, after class, and by appointment.
4. Biola E-mail: kevin.lewis@biola.edu
5. Biola Faculty Home Page: www.theolaw.org or www.kevinlewis.info .
6. ITL Home Page: www.itlnet.org Note: I will have many study materials linked on this site.
7. Department Secretary: The Christian Apologetics Department Secretary is Christy Brown. She may be reached at 562-906-4570 or at christy.brown@biola.edu.

B. SAMPLE HIGH QUALITY STUDENT PRECIS EXCERPT
[TEXTBOOK NOT FOR THIS COURSE]

Note the qualities of this précis excerpt that earned the student a high grade. (1) It is complete, easy to read, and well organized. (2) It is well documented and referenced. The student explained where each section summary originated. (3) It is written in a carefully well-worded manner and is grammatically correct. (4) It truly condenses the author's ideas in the student's prose without resorting to random selections of the author's direct quotes.

PRINCIPALITIES & POWERS¹

Chapter One: But Is It Real?

Discussion of the occult must not be trivialized or made meaningless.³ References to the occult should not be offhandedly vague, nor should the credibility of the existence of the supernatural be dismissed on an ad hoc basis.⁴

While almost impossible to capture the myriad of phenomena fitting within the scope of “the occult” with a single definition or description, it is dangerous error to permit the three broad categories into which occult activity are categorized – (1) the paranormal, (2) the supernatural, or (3) the “secret” or “hidden” – to become vehicles for simple reductionism.⁵

One of the real dangers of the occult is that the elements often overlap or appear in combination when considering any specific occult phenomena.⁶ It is the supernatural (the immaterial, spiritual, or other-worldly) that is foremost in thought when the “occult” is mentioned⁷ – probably because those who claim⁷ to have, or those who desire and pursue the knowledge and power linked with, special abilities are generally not deterred by consideration of the hazy line between the supernatural and the paranormal⁸ (powers and abilities possibly part of the genetic makeup of all human beings, accessible by some).⁹ The failure of rational explanations based on rules governing the material world to explain actual recorded incidents makes “hidden” or “secret” not merely a catch-all category of specialized practitioners or organizations justifies the application of the term “occult” -- whose historic root meant “hidden” – to all these phenomena generally.¹⁰

Concealment (usually intentional) of knowledge and practices to a select few so as to preclude the ability to verify of truth claims is the key distinction between the occult and legitimate scientific inquiry and the truth claims of religion. The life, death, and resurrection of Jesus is not so different in type from occult phenomena, but the broad exposure of the occurrence to public scrutiny is quite distinct.¹¹

Denial of the reality of the occult rejects the truth claims of the Bible. Worse, it is inherently illogical to reject all the non-biblical recorded data on a preconception against the reality of such phenomena.¹²

C. SAMPLE STUDENT NOTES FOR INDEPENDENT STUDY COURSE

Note: This is sample is not based on the lectures for this course, but exemplify the quality of notes you should take based on the lectures.

Student Name: Shawn Spencer
Student Number: 8675309
Cults of America
Spring 2014 - Lewis

D. THE COMMON THEOLOGICAL CHARACTERISTICS OF CULTS

1. Denial of the Trinity

Denial of the Trinity is common in cults. It is rejected because it is difficult to understand.

The Bible is rejected by many until it is reasonable to them.

“Faith seeking understanding” is the norm for the Christian church, that is, “I believe, in order that I might understand.” Rejection of the Trinity requires ruling out parts of Scripture that one personally believes to be irrational.

The Trinity is important because all doctrine starts with the doctrine of God. The questions of “how should we live before God” and “what are we supposed to be” follow this doctrine.

A Unitarian believes in one Person as God; the Trinitarian believes in three Persons as God the one God. The Unitarian view of how to imitate God is to be alone as God is alone. Because of this they emphasize education as the highest virtue, because smart people are the best kind of people in their book.

The Trinitarian understanding of God is that there are three Persons who have been in a righteous, loving relationship for all eternity. So the Trinitarian idea of being and acting in the image of God is relational. To imitate God is to function in loving relationships. The family is a key human model of this relationship.

Heresies come in multiples! Denying essential doctrines are almost always done in multiples as they are dependent on the doctrine of God.

a. What is the Doctrine of the Trinity?

What the Trinity is Not: It is not an egg or anything triplex. It is not modalism.

The Biblical facts show:

1) There is only one God by nature. Isa 43:10; 44:6
Jesus is unique 1 Tim 2:5, John 17:3

Very few cults reject monotheism. Rather Trinitarianism is rejected as polytheistic by certain cultists without the cultist understanding the meaning of the Trinity!

2). The Deity of the individual persons of the Godhead:

Mormons have a weird, polytheistic view of deity.

Christians must identify God as one divine Being who is simultaneously three divine Persons. This can be understood by understanding the soul in humans. All of us have a soul, but the entire soul simultaneously has three distinct capacities: intellect, will, and emotions.

All Three Persons are Deity.

The Father is Deity: This is seldom rejected by cults.

Jesus the Son is Deity: John 1:1 clearly teaches this in the prologue of John's Gospel (1:1-18). It is the story of Christmas; the Word of God became a man.

The Holy Spirit is Deity: In Acts 5:3-4 (the Ananias and Saphira story), the Holy Spirit is declared to be God and a Person.

Each Person of the Trinity remains eternally and simultaneously distinct. The Trinity is not one Person in three different roles.

3. The Simultaneous Distinction of all three Persons. (John 14:16)

The three Persons are simultaneously distinct.

Modalists cannot justify their beliefs since texts like John 14:16 teach the simultaneous distinction of Persons.

The definition of the Trinity: There is One God that simultaneously exists as three distinct Persons.

(End of 10th lecture)

(1) See Trinity Syllabus

Heresies often start in educational arenas, usually when some "smart" professor tries to improve on God's Word. Rather we need to understand the truth and authority of the Bible and approach it with reverence. Cults usually begin in saying that the Bible has been misunderstood, the church has gone astray, and then tell us the cult leader is the true source of truth. This is the cultic mentality.

Mormons are the worst theological cult. They are anti-Christian and closer to paganism than monotheism. Genuine Christians are closer to Islam than we are to Mormonism.

In Kenneth Copeland's version of the Word of Faith movement, Christians are "little gods." Copeland claimed special "Revelation Knowledge" for this view. Copeland also says Adam was an exact duplicate of God and that God lives on another planet. This little god of Copeland has the power to speak things into existence through positive confession. He also teaches that people, including Jesus, are "Born Again" from satanic nature to that of a divine nature. Word of Faith is not Christian.

Modalism is taught by many churches today, for example, TD Jakes, the United Pentecostals, and others. Modalism teaches that one Person who is God, appears in three ways, but is not three persons)

Nestorianism is another heresy that has re-emerged. It teaches that Christ is two Persons, a human person and divine Person.

Dynamic Monarchianism means the one Person who is God indwelt the man Jesus.

We have hope because God came in Person to lead us to a proper relationship with Him.

Tri-theists believe that there are three gods. Groups like the Mormons and the followers of Kenneth Copeland hold this view.

XI. GRADING CODE KEY FOR WRITTEN WORK

WRITTEN ASSIGNMENT CODE KEY

Note: If one instance of a certain kind of problem is noted in your paper, you should look for other instances of the same problem.

Code	Short Description	Detailed Description
¶	New Paragraph	Your paragraph is too long. Divide this paragraph into two or more paragraphs.
AAN	Additional Argumentation Needed	Expand your analysis to include additional arguments needed to deal fully with the issue.
ACA	Anticipate Counter Argument	Here, you should anticipate what your opponent will argue against you and refute it in advance.
AE	Article Error	The word requires a definite article “the” or an indefinite article “a” or “an” before it.
AGB	A Good Beginning	Your paper is a good start for research in this area. However, it requires additional research to adequately cover the topic.
AI	Argument Inadequate	The argument provided is inadequate. Either the material cited is irrelevant to the point in question or you have failed to show how it is.
AM	Argument Missing	You have failed to present an argument for your position. Do not merely assert your ideas.
AQ	Abridge Quote	The quote given is too long. Cite only the relevant and necessary portions it.
AR	Argument	Argue your point. Do not merely narrate.
AWK	Awkward	This sentence is awkward. Rephrase it for clarity.
BB	Blah, Blah, . . .	This section of the paper is not relevant to the topic. Eliminate blah-blah from your work.
BI	Bibliography Inadequate	The quantity or quality of sources, or both, is inadequate.
BM	Bibliography Missing	Where is the bibliography?
BP	Bibliography Padded	The bibliography contains a title or titles that are not cited in the body of your paper.
CAP	Capitalization Error	The word is either capitalized or not capitalized appropriately.
CF	Citation Form	The citation in your bibliography or footnote does not conform to standard citation form.
CNCL	Conclusory	You have stated a conclusion without sufficient supporting argumentation.
COL	Colloquialism	The word or phrase you employed is too informal or conversational.
CONT	Contraction	Do not (don't) use contractions in formal writing.
CPS	Cite Primary Source	You need to cite this material directly from a primary source. Either (1) you did not cite a primary source at all, or (2) you cited a primary source indirectly, i.e., by way of a secondary source.
DQN	Direct Quotation Needed	You need to provide a direct quotation to establish your point.
DS	Double Space	Double space this portion of the paper or the entire paper as required.
DT	Define Term(s)	You used a term that requires definition. Explain the significance and meaning of this word or phrase.
EA	Endnote Abomination	Endnotes are abominations! Use either footnotes (Turabian) or in-text citations (MLA or APA) as required for this class.
ED	Em Dash	Use an em dash “—” rather than parentheses “()” to distinguish parenthetical remarks from the rest of the sentence.
EF	Ellipsis Form	This ellipsis does not follow the proper form. For example, it may not contain the proper number of periods, or the spacing between periods is incorrect. See Turabian for the proper way to set up ellipses.
EV	Exegete Verse	You need to give details regarding why the passage means what you say it means.
FE	Factual Error	The statement is factually incorrect.
GA	Good Argument	You made your point well.

GI	Grammatically Incorrect	The sentence is grammatically incorrect. Follow the proper rules for grammar and syntax.
HE	Heading Error	Your headings are not correctly formatted or they are located at the bottom of the page. See the appropriate style guide for instruction.
HM	Headings Missing	Your paper is either missing the appropriate headings to divide the sections according to the guidelines or the headings are formatted incorrectly.
IA	Integrate Analytically	Integrate this block quote analytically into your own sentence. You may wish to summarize the quotation's content or use portions of the quotation with your own wording.
IDU	I Do Not Understand	Your sentence or argument does not make sense to me.
IM	Information Missing	You have omitted important information from your paper or exam.
INP	Indent New Paragraph	Res Ipsa Loquitur (The thing speaks for itself.)
IS	Issue Spotting	You either failed to spot an issue or misidentified an issue.
IV/IP	Interact with Verse or Passage	You have cited a passage as a proof text, but failed to demonstrate how the verse supports your argument or point. Explain how the verse or passage supports your argument.
LF	Logical Flow	The logical flow of the idea is unclear or erroneous. See also "IDU" and "PR."
MXC	Mixed Citation	Use either footnotes or an in-text citation method, but do not use both.
MI	Missing Information	You have omitted important information from your paper or exam.
NAN	No Annunciation Necessary	Do not announce what you will do in the paper. It is not necessary. Simply proceed with your paper.
OAO	One Argument Only	This assignment requires the student to select the single strongest and weakest argument. You have analyzed more than one argument in the section. See course outline.
OGP	Overall, A Good Paper	Res Ipsa Loquitur
